The prove nata meeting of Memphis Presbytery, at the Second Presbyterian church, Wednesday morning, was attended with great interest. Dr. Latimer requested the presbytery to dissolve his relation to the Second church as its pastor, he believing it his duty to accept the position of professor of church history in the Theological Seminary in Virginia. The representatives of the church, Dr. Alex. Erskine and Judge C. W. Heiskell, earnestly urged that the relation be not dissolved, pleading the great acceptability and usefulness of Dr. Latimer in that congregation, and deprecating his removal. After hearing all the parties and discussing the matter fully, the presbytery, by a vote of six to four, released Dr. Latimer from his pastoral charge and granted him a letter of dismission to the Presbytery of West Hanover, Va. He will remain to occupy the pulpit of the Second church, however, until the 1st of July.

"LADIES AND GENTLEMEN-I am thankful or the cordial welcome extended me and can only return the compliment by asking you all to come to New York—come to my house, but don't all come at once."

This unexpected huworous turn of the sentence provoked an outburst of laughter from the entire audience.

The lecturer discarded the usual forms of announcing the theme of his discourse, and subdividing it into sections to be handled seriatim. He said that this is a p'easant world to live in and a good time to live in it, notwithstanding the fact that there were so many condemning the world and the age we live in.
